The Newark Murder.

ACQUITTAL OF MARGARET GARRITY.

We are indebted to Day's Express for an extra of The Newark Mercury of yesterday morning, announcing the acquittal of Margaret Garrity on the ground of insanity. The Mercury says:

At an early hour this morning intelligence was spread through the city that the Jury had agreed, and at 74 the Court convened with the several counsel of the prisoner in attendance.

The general conviction was that the verdict would be against the prisoner, and a hushed stillness pervaded the audience as the Jury were ushered to their seats. They looked worn and fatigued, having been out sixtytwo hours.

The prisoner was in her seat, and evidently deeply affected with her situation; her stifled sobs were plainly perceptible, and her trembling frame denoted that she too had suffered powerfully from the uncertainty of her

When the roll of the Jury had been called, they were asked their verdict, and the foreman speaking for them, said that they found MARGARET GARRITY, the prisoner at the bar, NOT GUILTY, on the ground of insanity.

The verdict was greeted with applause by the crowded Court-room, which was, however, promptly checked by the officers in attendance. The Jury were thereupon dismissed, and the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this merning.

As the intelligence spreads through the city, it is met with almost universal congratulation and rejoicing. There is a general feeling that justice is far more strongly guarded and protected by such a verdict than by any other, and all classes'respond to the decision which has been made.

The Newark Daily Advertiser, of last evening, has the following:

The Court appointed a Commission, consisting of six physicians, this morning, to examine her case to decide whether she should be sent to the Asylum or set at lib-The Commission is composed of Drs. Darcy, Smith, Dougherty, Clark, Woodruff, and Pennington. They paid her a yisk this morning, and at the opening of the Court this afternoon reported as follows:

We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Court of Oyer and Terminer to inquire into the present condition of the mind of Margaret Garrity, respectfully report that, having made careful investigation, we find at present existing no evidences of unsound mind.

[Signed by the above Physicians.]

The New Hork Times

Published: October 14, 1851 Copyright © The New York Times